VOTES AGAINST REPUBLICAN PLAN THAT IGNORES THE FUTURE OF MEDICARE AND

WASHINGTON– Today, Congressman John Olver voted in favor of a Democratic plan

"Working families should not be burdened with this tax penalty," Olver said.

"The marriage penalty relief plan I support provides tax relief for married couples while

Under the current tax code, 48% of all married couples suffer from a "marriage penalty

The House Democrats' alternative would have increased the standard deduction for m

"The Republican bill is headed for a Presidential veto," Olver said. "We need a bipartis

The Republican bill passed the House by a final vote of 269 to 159.

###