

For qualified applicants, the federal government offers first-time home buyer loans and assistance in making needed home repairs. Additionally, if you are facing foreclosure, my office can refer you to local agencies specializing in foreclosure prevention.

NEWS: On June 20, 2011, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) in conjunction with NeighborWorks® America announced the launch of the Emergency Homeowners' Loan Program (EHLPP), to help homeowners who are at risk of foreclosure in 27 states across the country and Puerto Rico.

Contact information for participating agencies, the Pre-Applicant Screening Worksheet and more information on the EHLPP assistance and its eligibility requirements can be found at www.FindEHLPP.org or by calling toll free at 855-FIND-EHLPP (346-3345).

- The Department of Housing and Urban Development
- HUD In Massachusetts
- Making Home Affordable
- Western Massachusetts Foreclosure Prevention Center
- FAQs
- Follow HUD on 