

WASHINGTON - Congressman John W. Olver (D-1st District) announced today that, late Thursday, the

The official declaration triggers the release of federal funds to much of Massachusetts. Berkshire, Fran

Statements by Congressman Olver

"This may be an expensive winter for us in western Massachusetts," said Olver. "For those who face a

"The flooding in Massachusetts may not have matched the aggregate scope of the Katrina, Rita and Wi

Some background on the disaster declaration process

Governor Romney asked President Bush to issue a disaster declaration for all affected areas of Massa

The slow progress lead some to question whether or not the Administration would declare a disaster ou

###

For more information, contact Edward Terceiro, Executive Vice President, Mount Wachusett Communi